

Workshop on:

Education and Learning Issues in Entrepreneurship

National and Kapodistrian University of Athens
3 - 5 July 2013

"Entrepreneurial learning is not characterized by the notions of stability, consistency, or predictability. Rather, it has been demonstrated that the concepts of metamorphosis, discontinuity, and change more appropriately encapsulate the dynamics of this phenomenon."

Jason Cope, 2005

<http://edlearn.mm.di.uoa.gr>

CALL for PAPERS

Abstracts: March 10th 2013

- Practical learning of entrepreneurs and its relationship to learning theories;
- Learning associated with entrepreneurial decision making and beliefs;
- Learning as a component for entrepreneurship theory development;
- Entrepreneurial competencies and traits of habitual, latent, nascent or expert entrepreneurs;
- Entrepreneurial competencies for entrepreneurship education and training;
- Entrepreneurial career counselling;
- Entrepreneurial curricula in different contexts, countries & levels of education;
- Innovative instruction and learning activities;
- The impact of entrepreneurship education and training;
- Entrepreneurship as a capacity for lifelong learning;
- Entrepreneurship in the context of vocational training;
- Entrepreneurship and priorities for personal and career development.

The previous subjects indicate but not exhaust the relevance of education and learning to entrepreneurship. The main aim of the workshop is to discuss how recent developments in entrepreneurship studies explain business venturing and how they advance the fostering of entrepreneurial mindsets through teaching.

Scientific Committee

Elias Carayannis, George Washington University, USA
Dimo Dimov, University of Bath, UK
Sarah Drakopoulou-Dodd, ALBA, Greece
Julie Ann Elston, Oregon State University, USA
Regina Egetenmeyer, Johannes Gutenberg-Universität Mainz, GE
Simon Fraser, Robert Gordon University, UK
Heather Fulford, Robert Gordon University, UK
Panagiotis Georgiadis, University of Athens, Greece (chair)
Joseph Hassid, University of Piraeus, Greece
Robert Hisrich, Thunderbird School of Global Management, USA
Alexandros Kakouris, University of Athens, Greece
Bernd Käßplinger, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin, GE
Panayiotis Ketikidis, SEERC, Greece
Alexis Kokkos, Hellenic Open University, Greece
Norris Krueger Jr., Entrepreneurship Northwest, USA
Hans Landström, Lund University, Sweden
Doan Winkel, Illinois State University, USA